

Special Guest Speaker

U.S. Navy SEAL (Ret.) Mark Ozdarski

Mark Ozdarski retired from the Navy in 2013 after serving for 25 years. He began his career as a nuclear technician in the ballistic missile submarine fleet and became a Navy SEAL in 1988 where he served for 20 years. He ultimately rose to the rank of Lieutenant Commander (LCDR) and Special Projects Director for Naval Special Warfare Development Group (DEVGRU).

Throughout his distinguished career as a Navy SEAL he was deployed to over 40 countries, leading highly sensitive intelligence operations, working closely with the U.S. Department of Defense, national intelligence agencies, and senior U.S. and foreign diplomats. He received numerous military awards including the Bronze Star Medal, Navy Commendation Medal with Valor, and Presidential Unit Citation.

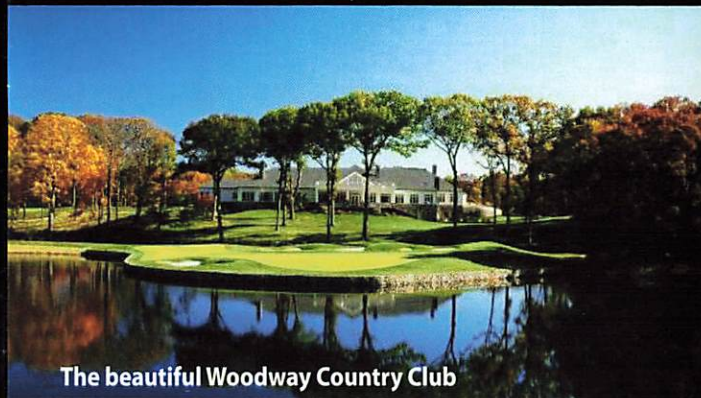

LCDR Ozdarski served as the Casualty Assistance Calls Officer (CACO) for Brian's family after his death. He currently serves as the CEO of SVEA Enterprise Management, Inc.

Chief Special Warfare Operator (SEAL)

Brian R. Bill '01

Brian was an elite level Navy SEAL who, in his abbreviated 31 years of living, accomplished more than most do in a lifetime. He was deployed on multiple occasions and his heroism was recognized by numerous combat awards including four Bronze Stars with valor. He spoke multiple languages, climbed some of the world's highest mountains, and was an Eagle Scout, pilot, skydiver, musician and triathlete.

On August 6, 2011, a Chinook helicopter, call sign Extortion 17, was shot down by enemy fire in Afghanistan ending the lives of 30 American military men and one working dog on board. Brian was one of 17 SEALs aboard that helicopter.
