

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Logan Arena is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Carter Erbelding is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Noah Floegel is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Alexandra Martin is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.
2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.
3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Sydney Du is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.
2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.
3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division

To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Matthew Mullen is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Simon Strazza is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Thomas Forbes is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. David Allen is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Jacob Alvero is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.
2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.
3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Bingham Autry is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Gianfranco Tammaro is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.
2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.
3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Ben Wilson is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.
2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.
3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Zachary Zazula is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Ashley Barragan is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Lori Huaman is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Jack Moy is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Kareena Kumar is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. John Matteson is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Elijah Zazula is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Alexander Shaw is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Robert Stanley is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired

UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS
DEALEY DIVISION
STAMFORD CT

24 April 2023

From: Commanding Officer, DEALEY Division
To: School Official

Subj: REQUEST FOR EARLY DISMISSAL ON FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023

1. Rachael Zazula is a Cadet in the U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps and I respectfully request you allow the student to be dismissed early on Friday, April 28, 2023 to attend one of our scheduled events. The mission of the Sea Cadets is to build leaders of character. We place young men and women in constructive environments where they are able to develop good character, self-reliance, discipline and leadership skills. You can learn more about our program at seacadets.org and at our website dealeydivision.org.

2. To fulfill our mission, we will participate in the New England Regional Flagship Competition with other Sea Cadet units at Joint Base Cape Cod at the Massachusetts Military Reservation from Friday, April 28, 2023 to Sunday, April 30, 2023. We will compete in events such as semaphore, Morse code, military marching, color guard, line heaving, marksmanship and personnel inspection. We will assemble in Stamford, CT at 2:00 pm. This time allows us to pack our gear and arrive in Cape Cod at a reasonable hour. Please allow the student to leave school early with enough time to get back home, change into uniform and travel to Stamford.

3. You may contact me at 203-918-0329 or co.012dea@seacadets.org should you need further information.

Very Respectfully,

LTJG Philip Alan Gerard, USNSCC
Captain, U.S. Navy Reserve, Retired